HCI Academic Press

Higher Education Leadership: The Journal of Academic Innovation, Faculty Development, and Institutional Change is pleased to announce an ongoing call for submissions. Higher Education Leadership is a multidisciplinary academic publication dedicated to advancing evidence-based approaches to leading colleges and universities through a period of profound change.

Our mission is to bridge leadership scholarship and institutional practice by connecting researchers, academic leaders, faculty developers, student affairs professionals, and policymakers in their efforts to build institutions that are innovative, resilient, and mission-driven.

We welcome a wide range of submission types, including:

- Original research articles
- Review articles
- Literature reviews
- Research notes
- White papers
- Commentaries
- Case studies
- Leadership and governance frameworks
- Institutional assessments

Higher Education Leadership prioritizes work that demonstrates how effective academic leadership—shared governance, strategic planning, faculty development and support, academic program innovation, and data-informed decision-making—leads to stronger institutional performance and student success. Our aim is to provide a publishing space that helps leaders navigate enrollment shifts, financial pressures, technological disruption, and evolving public expectations of higher education.

Through collaborative, cross-institutional approaches, Higher Education Leadership amplifies scholarship that transforms how colleges and universities are led, how faculty grow and thrive, and how institutions change to serve their students and communities. We welcome submissions from researchers, administrators, faculty, and practitioners across community colleges, regional and comprehensive universities, research institutions, online and international higher education, and related fields.
